

Apollo 50th Student Challenge

The Challenge:

- Build a replica of the Apollo Lunar Lander using Lego Mindstorm
- Fly over the Apollo 11 landing site with a Blue Heron Drone and land within a prescribed zone.
- Move along a path and deliver the payload at a designated location.

- Registration opens February 1, 2019 and closes March 30.
- Mission Patch mini-competition submissions due April 15. winners announced April 30.
- Submissions for best practice video posted on social media with a hash tag of #Apollo50, #ACS2019 closes June 15, Awards for best social media video given June 30.

SCC event
date is
May 4th, 2019

Officially called ANGLEs

The ANGLEs Challenge aims to increase student interest in STEM pathways and careers, particularly in underserved communities. Our event is open to the public.

Winners in Sylva go to South Carolina to get a chance to go to Johnson Space Center in August 2019

See website: <https://nwessp.org/apollo50/>

Registration link: send email to r_neff@southwesterncc.edu