Join Us For A Great Night Out!
Doug Varone and Dancers has commanded attention for its expansive vision, versatility, and technical prowess since it was founded in 1986. On the concert stage, in opera, theater, and on the screen, Varone’s kinetically thrilling dances make essential connections and mine the complexity of the human spirit. From the smallest gesture to full-throttle bursts of movement, Varone’s work can literally take your breath away.

The company will be performing three works: the luxuriant and exultant Lux; a dance of interconnected short stories – Chapters from a Broken Novel; and the highly emotive masterpiece Boats Leaving.

We will have dinner before the show.

Welcome to spring semester 2011. I trust you had a relaxing break and are now ready to academically thrive at SCC.

On my Christmas wish-list this year was The Best of Seals and Croft CD. I love musical groups where harmonies are rich, words are clear and rhythms are strong. I am telling you this because on the CD is a song called, “I’ll Play for You” and one of the lines in the song is, “My life is but a song, I have written in many ways…”

I find myself listening to this particular song often and I ALWAYS find myself thinking of YOU when I hear that particular line of the song. What song are you writing for yourself? If you were asked to describe the many ways your life plays itself, what would you say? Think about it…and if you want to share with me, Peter, Lisa or Laurie, you know we are interested in hearing about your song and your life.

As always, we love our conversations with you!
Let’s make this a semester to remember!
