

SOUTHWESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE	INSTRUCTIONAL LIBRARY COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT	Policy 5.02.09
-----------------------------------	--	-------------------

I. LIBRARY MISSION

The mission of Holt Library is to provide an information commons for learning resources designed to support and implement the total instructional supports the mission of program of Southwestern Community College. Its chief aim is to contribute to the realization of the institution's objectives by acquiring, organizing, and circulating the books, periodicals, audiovisuals, and online resources and materials needed to support the instructional program; to provide a variety of learning and study options; to provide instruction in the use of resources; and to promote the cultural development of library users. by providing a quality collection of materials to support college curricula and the scholarship of teaching and learning, to promote leisure reading, and to make lifelong learning resources available to SCC students, college employees, and residents of the college service area.

II. COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

The Library Director will facilitate and maintain a Library Collection Development Process as a guide to the selection and maintenance of learning resource materials that comprise the digital and hard-copy collections in the Southwestern Community College Library.

Cross Reference: 5.02.09.01 - Library Collection Development Process

Adopted: April 24, 2018

Revised: March 2022