

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

COURSE: CJC-3941: North Carolina – Detention Officer Certification Course (NC-DOCC)

DATES: Session #16 will be delivered from 09/30/2019 – 11/01/2019 at the PSTC in Franklin, NC

COST: $180.00 - Tuition Waiver ($0) for NC Law Enforcement Officers and Detention Officers

The North Carolina Department of Justice, Sheriff's Standards Division approved CJC:3941: North Carolina – Detention Officer Certification Course (NC-DOCC) delivered through the Southwestern Community College – Division of Public Safety Training Center (SCC-PSTC) contains the most current information available for Detention Officers. The Commission mandated 174-hour course takes approximately five weeks to complete and concludes with a comprehensive written certification exam. Upon successful completion of this course of training, the new Detention Officer will be eligible for certification within the State of North Carolina.

The Southwestern Community College – Division of Public Safety Training Center's CJC-3941: NC-DOCC curriculum currently comprises 209 Hrs., of enhanced training.

Agencies/Applicants should contact Mitch Boudrot, SCC-PSTC Law Enforcement Training Program (LETP) Director at (828) 306-7043, or m_boudrot@southwesterncc.edu to initiate the application process and schedule the administration of the required TABE reading comprehension examination.

Please refer to the SCC-PSTC-LETP NC-DOCC Applicant Checklist link for documentation required prior to the assignment to a training session. Additionally, links are provided for the following:

- ✓ NC-DOCC Example Format for Agency Sponsorship
- ✓ F-1 NC-DOCC Medical History Form
- ✓ F-2 NC-DOCC Medical Examination Form
- ✓ F-3 NC-DOCC Personal History Statement Form
- ✓ SCC-PSTC-LETP NC-DOCC Course Summary

Applicants must submit copies of their certified Birth Certificate, High School Diploma or GED, valid Driver's License and criminal records checks for each county of each state of residence since age sixteen (16). The F-1 Medical History and F-2 Medical Examination must be completed within six (6) months of the assigned NC-DOCC training session. The F-3 Personal History Statement must be recently completed and notarized.

Only approved uniform type shirts, trousers and polished footwear are permitted for all classroom and practical training evolutions, inclusive of outer wear, indicative of the student's and agency's professionalism within the training environment. The sponsoring/employing agency's uniform meets this requirement. Additionally, each student will possess appropriate physical training (PT) attire, of a neutral color, inclusive of corresponding athletic footwear.