

Academic Services

Because students come first at Southwestern, we have a number of resources to assist you when you are away from the classroom. Whether you are a student looking for ways to move your writing to the next level, seeking tutoring assistance, looking for help in receiving accommodations due to a disability, or simply in need of a conversation with an academic consultant or advisor to move you forward, we always strive to accommodate your academic request.

View PDF