

Student Right-to-Know Information

Southwestern Community College is committed to informing enrolled and prospective students about the probabilities of success in each program as well as current job market information. In order for students to make more informed decisions about attending college, Southwestern Community College makes the following information available in accordance with the federal Student Right-to-Know Act.

COMPLETION / GRADUATION RATES

The following completion/graduation rates are based upon a limited cohort of first-time, full-time, degree/certificate-seeking students who entered Southwestern Community College during the Fall term of each academic year. These students are tracked over a three-year period to determine their academic outcomes. Please note that these rates may not be representative of the entire student population of the college. The rates do not include continuing students or students who completed their outcome after the three-year tracking period, or students who attend the college to acquire new skills or take classes for personal enrichment.
