Michael brings over two decades of professional experience working at five different colleges or universities. In 2015, an opportunity to build and support a career development program brought him to SCC, and today, he is thrilled to coordinate PEAK, a college-wide commitment to supporting students in their identification of interests, exploration of pathways, attainment of professional knowledge, and ultimate success. Michael's professional interests and areas of expertise include forming partnerships between faculty, employers, and career services programs, resumé writing, and helping students value, develop, and market soft skills.

EMPLOYER RELATIONS

Located in Enrollment Services
on the first floor of the Balsam Center.

Career Services at SCC offers a robust, comprehensive employer relations program through which local and regional businesses, nonprofits, agencies, and institutions can recruit on campus for part-time, full-time, seasonal, and permanent positions. In addition to regularly-scheduled job fairs and hiring events, we offer a Job Board that targets students and alumni, weekly highlighted job announcements that go out through email and social media, and program-specific interviewing events and professional LinkedIn groups.

Employers can register to participate in our programs and hiring through the SCC Job Board, and join our community of aspiring professionals and job seekers through our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Our Mission includes helping students become successfully employed contributors to the regional community and economy and partnering with employers to offer experiential learning and employment opportunities while meeting the needs of the regional workforce.

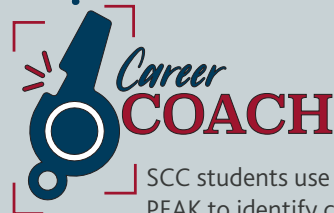

PEAK at SCC helps students identify and practice career-related soft skills, plan their career pathways, and positively impact our region throughout their successful professional lives.

Employers can post job openings, review resumés, register for career fairs, join our database, and target a strong pool of applicants in every SCC program, alumni, and the regional public.
