ABOUT THIS FIELD

Not everyone performs well under pressure. If you do, this might be an ideal career to pursue. Graduates are usually the first medical professionals on the scene of a medical emergency and provide first aid to patients in need of assistance.

WHAT YOU'LL STUDY

Students will gain complex knowledge, competency and experience while employing evidence-based practice under medical oversight, and serve as a link from the scene into the healthcare system.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Graduates of this program may be eligible to take state and/or national certification examinations. Employment opportunities include providers of emergency medical services, fire departments, rescue agencies, hospital specialty areas, industry, educational and government agencies.
