

SOUTHWESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE	STUDENT SERVICES STANDARDS OF STUDENT CONDUCT	Policy 6.03.02
-----------------------------------	---	-------------------

The College makes every effort to maintain a safe and orderly educational environment for students and staff. Therefore, when, in the judgment of College officials, a student's conduct disrupts or threatens to disrupt the College community, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken to restore and protect the sanctity of the community.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with generally accepted standards of scholarship and morality. The purpose of these standards is not to restrict student rights but to protect the rights of individuals in their academic pursuits.

The following regulation set forth offenses for which disciplinary proceedings may be initiated. Violation of one or more of the following regulations may result in one of the sanctions described in 6.03.02.01 - Discipline and Appeal Procedures for Academic-Related Violations and/or 6.03.02.02 – Discipline and Appeal Procedures for Non-Academic Related Violations.

A. Academic-Related Violations

1. Aiding Acts of Academic Dishonesty – Providing information to another student and knows or reasonably should have known that the student intends to use the information for cheating or other deceptive purposes.
2. Cheating – Using notes or other material on an exam or course assignment without permission from the class instructor; receiving information from another student during an exam; obtaining a copy of an exam or questions from an exam prior to taking the exam; submitting some else's work as one's one; or having someone take one's exam or complete one's course assignment and submitting it as his/her own; or submitting exam or course assignment material written in whole or in part by anyone other than the student without proper attribution, including but not limited to material written by peers, tutors, previous students, or artificial intelligence tools
3. Plagiarism – The intentional theft or unacknowledged use of another's work or ideas. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to: a) paraphrasing or summarizing another's words or works without proper acknowledgement; b) using direct quotes of material without proper acknowledgment; or c) submitting material written in whole or in part by anyone other than the student without proper attribution, including but not limited to material written by peers, tutors, previous students, or artificial intelligence tools; d) purchasing or using a paper or presentation written or produced by another person. If a student is uncertain about what constitutes plagiarism, he/she should discuss with the class instructor.
4. Violations of Normal Classroom Behavior – Not complying with reasonable rules issued by an instructor, showing disrespect to others, causing disruption in the classroom or not abiding by professional conduct.
